I do not see an option to cancel the filing. I am officially withdrawing my Petition for Reconsideration, filed August 9, 2015.

Thank you,

Ben Sondgeroth

Mr. Sondgeroth,

In the FCC's July decision we Dismissed an appeal you filed with us on February 24, 2015 because you needed to file the appeal with USAC first and once you received that decision you were to file an appeal with the FCC. You did just that. We currently still have your appeal filed on July 28, 2015. It appears you filed a Reconsideration of the July decision. I feel that you need to withdraw that decision. We will act on your July 28 appeal soon.

Hi Adrian,

You have been very helpful throughout this mess of a process that I have been involved in and I just wanted to reach out and ask another question. We received a decision back from the FCC on our most recent appeal and were denied. I was wondering if you could help shed some light as to what we did wrong and why we were denied. Is it something incorrectly done in the filing?

Thank you in advance!

Mr. Sondgeroth,

The FCC has a new rule that states applicants who receive an adverse decision from USAC should file their appeals directly with USAC in the first instance before filing an appeal with the FCC. You filed an appeal here at the FCC for FCC Form 471 application number 910403, that appeal should have been filed with USAC first. You have 60 days from the date on USAC's adverse decision (USAC issued an Administrator's Decision on Invoice Deadline Extension Request letter on March 23, 2015) which would be May 22, 2015 to file. Please file an appeal with USAC before May 22, 2015, so that your appeal will be timely filed with USAC.

Sincerely,

Adrian Wright
